

FRA-Services AG is a well-established partner of top companies in the German and European economy when it comes to a qualified credit assessment of strategically important suppliers around the globe. If you feel very comfortable with balance sheets and company analysis, you have drive and are looking for an environment in which you can develop yourself and your skills, then use your chance now! For our next increase in growth, we are looking for a

Balance sheet- / Credit Analyst (f/m/d)

We offer:

- An ambitious and varied job with a dynamic and highly motivated team in the center of Stuttgart
- A loyal and inter-personal environment in a team of highly qualified professionals
- The possibility to work independently and help shaping
- "On-The-Job"-Training
- Daily touchpoints with top companies of the German and European economy
- Flat organizational hierarchy and a very open-minded culture of communication that ensures high flexibility and rapid response
- Sparkling water, coffee and tea for free

Job description:

- Evaluation of annual financial statements and intra-year figures of companies located worldwide
- Commenting on the evaluation in the context of a financial report
- You will work with our new web-tool and, if necessary, train our customers
- You are the contact person for our customers and their business partners in daily business
- You will accompany projects that arise during the expansion of business activities (processes, IT, etc.)
- You take responsibility for the induction of new employees
- If required, you will support our customers with supplier meetings

Qualification & experience:

- Successfully completed studies with a focus on business administration or an apprenticeship as a bank clerk with additional training (banking specialist or similar)
- (First) experience in balance sheet analysis and the ability to think in complex contexts (further foreign language desirable)
- You have a high degree of personal initiative, reliability, loyalty, flexibility, open-mindedness and team spirit as well as a structured and independent way of working
- Strong communication skills with strong customer orientation and a confident appearance
- Fluent speaking & writing skills in German and English required
- You have excellent expertise with MS-Office

If our open position suits you, we are very looking forward to your application!

Please send us your detailed documents by e-mail: karriere@fra-services.de.